

Privacy Statement Oxbo Apps

FleetCommand and FieldCommand

Last revised: January 2024

Introduction

We are Ploeger Oxbo Holding B.V. (hereafter: "Oxbo", "we", "us" and "our") based in the Netherlands with postal address: Electronweg 5, 4706 PP Roosendaal and registered in the Dutch trader register with registration number 65470524. We have created and operate the FleetCommand App and the FieldCommand App (the "Apps"). The FleetCommand App allows a user of the Apps (hereafter: "you" and "your") to monitor your machine remotely on your mobile device and the FieldCommand App allows you to view your machine details and statistics, as well to tweak selected parameters from your device by simply scanning the QR Code on your machine.

Via this privacy statement we, as data controller, aim to inform you how we process personal data in connection with the Apps. For inquiries relating to your privacy, including if you require this privacy statement in a different format, have a complaint, need to update your personal data or wish to exercise your rights set out in this privacy statement, you can reach us via e-mail at info@ploegeroxbogroup.com.

In this privacy statement, references to terms such as 'personal data', 'data subject' and 'data controller' include corresponding terms in data protection laws in other relevant jurisdictions, such the General Data Protection Legislation (GDPR), Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Australian Privacy Act) in Australia, Brazilian Data Protection Law No. 13,709/2018 (LGPD) in Brazil, the Act respecting the protection of personal information in the private sector (Quebec Privacy Law) and Alberta Personal Information Protection Act (Alberta PIPA) in Canada, Chilean Law 19,628 on the protection of private life (DPL) in Chile, New Zealand's Privacy Act 2020 (New Zealand Privacy Act) in New Zealand, the South African Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA) in South Africa, and the California Online Privacy Protection Act (CalOPPA) in California, United States.

Certain sections in this privacy statement apply to individuals in specific countries only. Such sections are written in Italics and mention the specific country/countries where they apply. This privacy statement also includes a specific section for individuals in Mexico.

You can find Oxbo's general privacy policy at <https://oxbo.com/privacy-policy/>.

This privacy statement describes the types of information we may collect from you when you use our Apps. This privacy statement does not apply to information (a) we collect from you through any in-person or face-to-face interactions we have with you, or through an audio-only telephone conversations; (b) by any other websites or apps operated by us, unless the website or app is listed above or links to this privacy statement; (c) collected by any third party website that we may provide a link to or that is accessible from our Apps; or (d) covered in part or in whole by a separate privacy policy provided by us.

What do we process?

The details of the processing activity are set out in the table below:

Your personal data are needed to enable the functionalities in the App and to analyse how the App is used.

We confirm that in order to utilise the functionalities of the Apps, you will be required to provide us with the personal data as set out above. In the absence of providing us with the necessary personal data, you may not be able to utilise the Apps.

We may also process the personal data described above if necessary to comply with legal obligations (for example if we receive a request from a competent authority), to respond to requests, enquiries and complaints received from individuals, in relation to business transactions (such as mergers and acquisitions), to carry out research, for our legitimate interests, in order to enhance, modify, personalise and improve the Apps, or in relation to disputes and legal proceedings. In these cases we will retain your personal data as long as necessary for the relevant purpose and as allowed by the relevant laws.

International data transfer:

We confirm that in principle we only process your personal data within the EEA. The EEA is known for its robust privacy legislation such as the GDPR. If you are located outside the EEA and you provide us with your personal data, you acknowledge and, where required by law agree, you transfer your personal data to the EEA.

If there is any situation we deviate from this principle and process your personal data outside the EEA we will, when required inform you and obtain your consent, and take the necessary measures to comply with the GDPR and other applicable data protection laws to ensure that your personal data is subject to protections equivalent to the in the EEA.

Data Security

We have put in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal data against unintended loss or amendment and against unauthorised access, disclosure or processing.

UNITED STATES ONLY:

Security measures

Although we have taken steps designed to protect against the risk of accidental, intentional, unlawful, or unauthorized access, alteration, destruction, disclosure, or use, the internet and mobile platforms are not 100% secure and we cannot guarantee the security of information transmitted through the internet and mobile platforms. We cannot guarantee the security of personal data transmitted to, on, or through our Apps. Any transmission of personal data is at your own risk. We are not responsible for the circumvention of any privacy settings or security measures contained on our Apps, in your operating system, or mobile device.

Children's privacy

Our Apps are not intended for children under 13 years of age. We do not knowingly collect or sell personal data from children under the age of 13. If you are under the age of 13, do not use or provide any information on or to the Apps. If we learn we have collected or received personal data from a child under the age of 13 without verification of parental consent, we will delete it. If you are the parent or guardian of a child under 13 years of age whom you believe might have provided use with their personal data, you may contact us at info@ploegeroxbogroup.com to request the personal data be deleted.

Do not track

Some web browsers permit you to broadcast a signal to websites and online services indicating a preference that they "do not track" your online activities. However, there is no accepted standard for how a website or online service should respond to this signal and, at this time, we do not take any action in response to such a signal.

Your rights

You have various rights when we process your personal data. Depending on the law applicable in your country, these rights may include, but are not limited to, the right to access your personal data, confirmation of the existence of the processing, the right to correct (i.e. rectify) or eliminate inaccurate personal data, portability of the data to other providers of services or goods, and the right to ask us to stop (i.e. restrict) or to object to the processing of your personal data, and the right to cancel or delete or anonymize your personal data. Where consent is the basis for our processing of your personal data, you also have the right to withdraw consent.

If you want to access any of these rights you can get in touch with us by emailing us at info@ploegeroxbogroup.com. We will work with you to help you access these rights, taking into account any conditions, limitations and exceptions which might apply to your situation under applicable data protection laws.

Further to the rights listed above, you have the right to lodge a complaint with our leading data protection authority: the Dutch Data Protection Authority (Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens, the "DDPA"). If you live outside of the Netherlands, you may also lodge a complaint with your local data protection authority, including the authorities listed below. If you wish to do so, please note that various data protection authorities will only handle your complaint if you have filed a complaint with us first.
